

Professional Services Firm Expands Growth Strategy

January 4, 2007
Akron, Ohio

Adache, Ciuni, Lynn and Associates, a Cleveland-based engineering firm, has joined GPD Group of Akron. GPD Group is excited to announce that we are now able to provide architectural and engineering services to the greater Cleveland area.

According to Joseph Ciuni, P.E., P.S., and President of Adache, Ciuni, Lynn and Associates, "Although we were not in the market to sell, when GPD Group approached us to join them, the results provided synergy to both firms." Adache, Ciuni, Lynn and Associates is an established engineering services firm that has been providing quality engineering services for their clients for the past 55 years. Adache, Ciuni, Lynn and Associates has excellent surveying and civil engineering services. Combined with GPD Group's eight engineering disciplines and a strong architectural program that has served clients for over 45 years, this team will offer comprehensive architectural and engineering services to an even broader client base in Northeast Ohio.

With an already established architectural practice and a variety of engineering disciplines that include civil, mechanical, structural, and electrical engineering, GPD Group has strengthened its position in the greater Cleveland market. "We are very pleased that Adache, Ciuni, Lynn and Associates is now a part of GPD Group. Their expertise and project experience are well respected within the engineering community, we're excited about our future together," said David B. Granger, P.E., and President of the GPD Group.

GPD Group, located in Akron, Cleveland, Columbus and Stow, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Indiana, is a professional services firm that specializes in engineering and architectural disciplines for diverse markets that include community facilities, education, housing, parks and recreation, power distribution, public works, retail commercial, site development, telecommunications, transportation and wireless systems.
